Outside Conference Attendance

Supporting professional associations and programs is one way the court increases knowledge and skill sets in its workforce. Non-management court clerks were provided the opportunity to attend The Arizona Court Association (ACA) annual two-day conference and the Faculty Skills Development Program offered by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). The court also supports the AOC's two leadership conferences; the Annual Judicial Conference and the Court Leadership Conference. Additionally, the court supports the National Association of Court Management (NACM) by participating in its annual conference.

Staff Participation

The court believes staff has some of the best ideas for improving working conditions. As a result, court administration continually seeks employee involvement to resolve issues and participate in new initiatives. On-going committees during this fiscal year included: Court Safety Committee, Court Innovation Team, Error Report Focus Group, Legislative Impact Workgroup, Court Web Workgroup, Video Workgroup, and Court Technology Steering Committee. The court is thankful for staff involvement and their feedback which is critical in making effective change.

Alternate Work Week

The court piloted an Alternative Work Week (AWW) program that includes a 9/80 schedule. Although the court is open five days a week and on the weekends for jail court, staff who were employed at the court and not on probation at the time of the pilot, were able to request a 9/80 schedule (work 80 hours in a nine day period). Based on staff's suggestion, the alternative work week was piloted in an effort to increase retention and workplace satisfaction.

COJET Award

The court implemented an Award Winning Training Program December 2015. The "job focused training" includes over 100 lesson plans for tasks necessary to conduct specific job duties such as a Court Clerk. This court-wide endeavor took two years to complete and is still a work in progress as lesson plans are continuously updated. Julie Dybas, the Court Administrator, was honored with the COJET Excellence in Education Award, established by the Committee on Judicial Education and Training (COJET), for implementing this innovative new training program.
